REBA ANNOUNCES ARENA TOUR WILL INCLUDE THE FOOTHILLS FALL FESTIVAL

Tickets Go On Sale July 30; Additional Entertainers to be Announced

Maryville, Tenn. – The Foothills Fall Festival, October 7, 8 and 9 announces the Saturday night lineup.

Music Legend Reba McEntire will headline the Foothills Fall Festival bringing her arena tour to Maryville's Theater in the Park.

Planners are still working hard to finalize the remaining festival lineup, but according to Greg McClain, city manager, "The news about Saturday could not be contained until then. This is big! Our fans have asked for Reba for years, and we were thrilled that our date worked out for her tour. We know that Reba is a fan favorite, crossing many generations, and we are excited that she will be performing in Maryville."

Joining Reba will be Greenville natives and ACM's Top New Vocal Group The Band Perry and CMT's "Can You Duet" winners Steel Magnolia.

The Band Perry's Greenville Tennessee roots have no doubt influenced their unique style of American music. "Daddy rocked us to sleep with the Rolling Stones; Mama woke us up with Loretta Lynn. So we get it honest," said Kimberly Perry, the band's lead singer. The siblings have encountered tremendous success with their double platinum hit "If I Die Young" and it continues with "You Lie" climbing the charts and currently at number 3.

Steel Magnolia sweethearts Joshua Jones and Meghan Linsey have found a unique connection both on and off the stage. Winners of the hit show "Can You Duet" produced by the creators of "American Idol," Steel Magnolia creates a "unique vocal blend that is truly special," said Scott Borchetta, President of Big Machine Records.

Tickets for this year's festival are slated to go on sale July 30 and will be available at the Maryville Municipal Center, Blount County branches of First Tennessee and GreenBank, as well as through Tickets Unlimited.
